

FAITH THAT DOES NOT RUN

Jonah

The story of the prophet Jonah teaches us about following the call of God, even in the fact of danger. Jonah represents four different kinds of people that can be evident in our own lives depending on how we respond to God's call.

I. _____ (ch. 1)
Why does it seem easier to run away from God than to obey Him?

II. _____ (ch. 2)
We can be a prisoner of our own disobedience when we try to run from God.

III. _____ (ch. 3)
Jonah, in obedience to the call of God, preached the most powerful revival message ever preached.

IV. _____ (ch. 4)
Why do we complain when following God does not turn out the way we think it should?

Faith that does not run is the faith that obeys.
